Welcome to All About Sewing Inc.
Mobile, Alabama
Your Sewing Superstore

All About Sewing, Inc. is a unique combination of retail sales, service and sewing instruction. We carry a complete line of sewing machines ranging from entry level machines to some of the best top-of-the-line machines in the industry. We are proud to represent Bernina, Janome and Singer sewing machine companies.

Each company has machines that just sew, machines that embroider and machines that do both. We also carry a complete line of sergers and machine embroidery software. In addition to our machines we carry a wide variety of sewing, quilting and embroidery accessories. Some of our customers call us the "gizmo-gadget gals". If you are aware of a new item, let us know and we will find it for you.

Located within our store is a state-of-the-art classroom where we run a complete sewing school. Machine Mastery, offered free when you purchase a machine at All About Sewing and Basic Sewing classes where you can learn the basic techniques of the art of sewing are the backbone of our curriculum but we also have many other classes. Check out the class schedule and come join in the fun. We have a staff of wonderful teachers with lots of sewing experience in specialty areas like quilting, home dec, and heirloom sewing. Take a look!!!

We also have a complete machine repair center with 2 fully trained technicians.
